California

IF DOROTHY CANFIELD FISHER describes Louisiana as "dark-eyed, fascinating, temperamental" and Vermont as "lean, rather gaunt," we may describe California as a dashing Spanish girl. Her great, dark, flashing eyes seem at first too flirtatious to the Easterner. Her mouth is at first too smiling, showing too-white teeth. Her lips are too red; the flowers in her hair, too brilliant. The Easterner feels that she dances the fandango with too much verve, and he is a little bit suspicious of the strange music from the castanets in her hands. He does not see the duenna guarding this young and beautiful maiden from a dusky corner.

The duenna sees that the chosen suitor is of such integrity that he may well be the head of a California family. The beautiful maiden becomes the grand Señora then, great like the "virtuous woman" described by Solomon, who rises early that she may provide for her family. California provides with a lavish hand fruits of almost Oriental splendor for her household, and for others. She takes to her heart the orphan from the storm and the dust bowl, and soon she makes them hers. Her adopted children rise up in the gates to praise her, and her sons call her blessed. But with all this, she remains young and dashing and never forgets how to dance and be gay at the fiesta.

Appreciation and Challenge

AS THE SCHOOL TERM is drawing to a close, I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation to the student body of the Berkeley High School for their very fine coöperative spirit.

Throughout the past two years, and especially during the past year, as I have become acquainted with the students of the Berkeley High School, I can truthfully say that it has been a pleasure to be associated with them. The willingness shown on the part of our students to support any and all of the activities and the general upbuilding of the school has been most gratifying. It is this readiness on the part of the students to coöperate with the faculty and the administration, that builds a finer and better school. Not only does this spirit build for a better understanding during our school career, but if and when developed in young people, it is bound to carry over into later life.

I have followed with a great deal of interest many of the members of the graduating classes, and have been unusually well impressed with their leadership qualities. I predict a fine career for many of the members of the graduating class of June '39, and hope that they will continue to participate in the various activities as they travel along life's highway, since our country needs leadership sorely.

In closing, may I ask our students to apply themselves most earnestly and prepare themselves for the problems that they will face in the future. With a thorough preparation and an active participation in the various activities, I am certain that they will fit into some position of importance where their services will be needed. I therefore wish one and all a most successful career.

Changes in Government

THROUGHOUT the entire United States student government is being reorganized to meet changing needs. Berkeley High School has been no exception, as may be seen by the completion of a new constitution.

We, as members of the last Board of Control, have felt that student representation should be increased, to spread the responsibility for government throughout a greater number of students. This term marks the passing of the five-member Board of Control, which will be replaced by a thirteen-member board.

This semester we have carried on the usual activities of the Board, besides trying many new ideas. The student body card sale campaign opened our term's work. We put on many unusual stunts in assemblies and on the slope in an effort to stimulate more school spirit, and to reach our quota in cards. The first assembly given by the Board presented an entirely new and somewhat surprising program.

Valentine's Day was the inspiration for the first night dance of the term. The Social Hall was gayly decorated with hearts and streamers to carry out the "sweetheart" theme. The Board sponsored three afternoon dances during the term. At each dance candy was offered to the first two hundred students entering the Social Hall.

With all the spring sports under way, the Board of Control presented an athletic rally just before the A. C. A. L. track meet.

One of the most important activities given by the Board was the second annual "Who's Who" dinner, which maintained a tradition which was started a year ago.

We, as members of the Board of Control, wish to express our thanks to the teachers and students for coöperating with us and giving their help to make this term's activities successful. We hope that the new Board of Control will receive as much pleasure from carrying on Berkeley High School's activities as we have.

Friendship and Service

WITH THE MOTTO "Friendship and Service" guiding all its activities, the Girls' Association, under the faculty sponsorship of its friend Miss Kinell, and the student leadership of Natalie Harris, enjoyed a successful semester.

Friendship—In a sincere effort to make the new freshmen feel at home with their new friends and new surroundings, the Freshman Reception started off the activities with glamorous Hollywood as the theme. The audience was entertained by impersonations of movieland personalities, a preview, skits, and songs concerning the cinema. After refreshments at the Brown Derby the guests finished the afternoon with dancing.

Also for the sake of pure enjoyment the "Dixie Dinner" was planned. The atmosphere and hospitality of the Old South plus fried chicken equaled a memorable evening. After dinner the girls were offered an all-Southern program, with music, songs, a dance, and humorous sketches.

The P.-T. A. in conjunction with the G. A. presented a Fashion Bridge Tea for the enjoyment of the mothers and teachers on the afternoon of May 9, part of the proceeds of which were devoted to the G. A. scholarship fund.

The Senior Farewell, the last social event on the calendar, gave the girls an opportunity to do something for their "big sisters"—something to show them how they had enjoyed working with them and playing with them. The mood of the party was both reminiscent and prophetic, as the seniors' past, present, and future achievements were dramatized.

The G. A. also gave a free afternoon dance, the "Sweetheart Swing," for the entire student body.

Service—The more serious aspects of the G. A.'s contributions to school and community were given attention and enthusiasm as well as were social activities.

All the girls worked together in contributing 200 garments to the Needlework Guild, of which the Association is a chapter. Each garment for the needy children was made by some girl from material purchased with the money generously contributed by girls' and boys' home-rooms alike. The garments made an attractive display before they were turned over to the Guild.

To aid the school in furthering the education of its worthy students, the semi-annual G. A. play was given. Mrs. Schwimley directed the cast of the pleasing comedy, "A Wedding." The leads were filled by Lois Hiester and Lloyd Callaway, with an excellent supporting cast.

Spring

Senior Activities

THIS SPRING'S senior class activities have been aptly planned by the Social Committee, managed by Al Scott, the Ditch Day Committee, under Bob Dieterich, and the High Senior Council and class officers, headed by John Kenward, president of the class.

The first event of importance was the "Red and Gold" dance held in the middle of April. This was financed in part by the class dues collected by Charles Parker, class treasurer, and his committee. The theme was Berkeley High School, and the Social Hall was decorated accordingly in the school colors. Cartoons of several of the "big shots" around school were drawn and hung on the walls.

Following the dance, Ditch Day assumed a major rôle in the senior activities. A ferry boat was rented, and most of the seniors spent the day enjoying themselves aboard. Several members of the faculty accompanied the party. Dancing was made possible by the school orchestra, which was precariously placed on the upper deck. As usual the candid camera fiends were much in evidence.

"You Can't Take It With You" was the play chosen by the seniors. Taking the leading parts in the cast were James Keilty, Florence Booth, Bill Oliver, Marjorie Silva, Imogene Wilson, Claude McEntyre, Sylvia Kiosterud, Dick Stockwell, Elizabeth Turner, Jack Levine, and Earl Wagy. The play was ably directed by Mrs. Schwimley. Everyone, from the smallest tenth grader to the most worldly-wise senior, enjoyed this comedy immensely. In fact, some theater-goers acclaimed it the best senior production in years.

The senior dinner is, at this time, being planned. Bob Douthitt is in charge of entertainment; so a good program will be in store. The affair will take place on June second.

The customary senior gift has not definitely been decided upon, though many suggestions have been made. This decision will occupy the class in the coming weeks.

Of course, graduation will be the final step, and the hardest to take. Though seniors may seem happy at the prospect of graduating from high school, underneath most of them have a lost feeling and wish they could start high school all over again. John Kenward will give the introductory speech at the graduation exercises, and Lois Hiester, Richard Randall, Jean Gabbert, and Roger Hildebrand will follow with four commencement speeches. The topic will be the Golden Gate International Exposition.

Although the term has been a long one, it has been more than full for the high seniors. We hope that the next class to fill this place will have as enjoyable a time in their last term.

BERKELEY HIGH is represented before the public by three publications: the Weekly News, the student newspaper; the Olla Podrida, the semi-annual book; and Manuscript, the semi-annual literary magazine.

The Weekly News, which is issued every Wednesday during the school year, has been edited this term by Kenneth Levick, last term's Olla Podrida editor. The paper is entirely supported by its advertising which has been in charge of Don Cook, the manager for this term. The news reporting and much of the news, feature, and editorial writing is done by members of the journalism class. The paper is linotyped and printed by students in the printing classes.

The Olla Podrida editor this term is Marjean Pettis. All of the group pictures in the book were taken by student photographers, with Jim Jondrow, photographic editor, directing. The art staff members were recruited from the art classes. Sports articles were contributed by members of the Weekly News sports staff, and other articles by officers of the various organizations.

The Olla Podrida sales campaign was sponsored by Miss Ruth Price, John Pearson serving as chairman of the sales committee. Maxine Alderette, Bill Oliver, and Bob Dieterich distinguished themselves as super-salesmen.

The Manuscript Club publishes at the end of each semester a magazine of literary compositions of its members, including both prose and verse. The Manuscript is printed in the Berkeley High School print shop. This term, as the Olla Podrida goes to press, Manuscript is just about to come off the press. Virginia Ralston has been president of the Manuscript Club this term; Miss Constance Topping is its sponsor.

Basketball

AFTER A MEDIOCRE practice record of five victories and five defeats, Coach Jack Eadie's Yellowjacket cagers suddenly came to life and swept through the A. C. A. L. with but a single loss to annex their first title since 1936.

The season record of fourteen games won and seven games lost was very impressive, considering the fact that the Jackets lost to such strong teams as Lowell, champions of San Francisco; Oakland Tech, Oakland champs; and the California Frosh.

Graduation will claim the entire first string, which consisted of Al Scott and Bert Acton at forwards, Bill Durkee at center, and Ernie Smith and George Thorne at guards. The reserve unit included John Kenward, Gene Bryant, Bob Cochrane, Art Jones, Merrill Callow, Perry Thornton, and Louie Mertins. Only the last three return next year.

Berkeley started the A. C. A. L. season by defeating a determined Albany five, 32 to 21.

The following week they toppled the heavily favored Richmond Oilers, 25-18.

After subduing Alameda by a 26 to 19 margin, the Jackets were handed their only loss by Hayward, 27 to 22.

In a hair-raising battle, Berkeley upset Piedmont by a score of 25 to 24. Al Scott's free throw proved the margin of victory.

Becoming stronger with each game, the Yellowjackets beat Albany, Richmond, Alameda, and Hayward with little difficulty in the second round, leaving the Piedmont game to decide the title. After piling up a 19 to 6 half-time advantage, the Jackets coasted to an easy 34 to 27 victory to win the A. C. A. L.

BILL FONTENROSE

BASKETBALL INDIVIDUALS

BILL DURKEE, rangy center, was high scorer during the season, and won all-county recognition. He was especially effective on close-up and tip-in shots. Coach Eadie will find him hard to replace next year.

AL SCOTT, tallest man on the squad, used his height to great advantage under the basket, to end up second-best scorer. His excellent team-work and aggressiveness aided the Jackets through many a tough game.

BERT ACTON, smallest player on the team, played on the Bees last year as a substitute. However, his uncanny eye won him a starting berth on the first team. Bert played his best game against Piedmont.

GEORGE THORNE, although small for a guard, made up for his lack of height by his fighting spirit and his ability at grabbing the ball off the backboard. George was the spark plug of the team, and possessed a good eye.

ERNIE SMITH, at guard, was the coolest player on the floor, and also specialized in recovering rebounds. He had a good shooting average, although taking few shots.

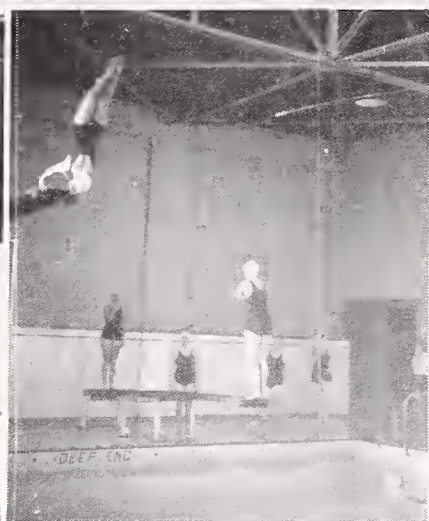

JOHN KENWARD, a three-year veteran, was only out for the team during the latter part of the season, but saw some action as guard.

GENE BRYANT was one of the best substitutes on the team. He played exceptionally well in the final Piedmont game.

BEE BASKETBALL

COACH AL PARKER's class B basketball team successfully defended their 1937-38 A. C. A. L. title this season, although they completed their schedule in a tie for first with the Richmond lightweights.

All hope for another title was gone when the Bees had but two games remaining, for Richmond had already defeated them twice. But Alameda and Hayward both upset the Oiler lightweights and Berkeley defeated Hayward and Piedmont to deadlock the two teams in first place.

The first team consisted of John De Martini and Bill Lambert at forwards, Bill Fontenrose at center, and Jim Johnston and Joe Wosser at guards. Bill Wright, John Sproul, Charles Hanger, Ernie Schauppner, and Fred Abraham made up the reserve five.

Johnny De Martini was the most outstanding player on the Bees, being high scorer with 94 points.

The most thrilling game of the season was the second Hayward game. Hayward was leading 22 to 21 in the waning moments of the game, when a Hayward player fouled Johnston, Bee guard. The score board showed that only ten seconds remained, but Jim calmly stepped up to the free throw line to sink his charity toss to tie the score. In a "sudden death" overtime period no field goals were scored, but Berkeley cashed in on a free throw to win the exciting battle.

Baseball

WINDING UP the 1939 baseball season in first place, the Berkeley High School baseball team once more repeats the feat of preceding Berkeley teams, keeping the A. C. A. L. championship.

This year's team was slow starting in league competition, and lost its opener to Richmond 8 to 3. They won the next one, defeating Albany 8 to 3. Then the team lost to Alameda and beat Hayward, to end the first round tied for second place.

Starting the second round by losing to Richmond, hope was given up for a championship this year. But the Yellowjackets surprised in the next two games by taking both Albany and Alameda, the two leading teams in the league. At press time the Jackets were favored to defeat Hayward again and to retain the championship.

Coach Elgin Erickson should be commended for his fine work with the team this year. He had only three men returning from last year's championship team, and the rest of the men had to come from rookies and reserve players. This year's team had fine pitching. There were three boys who shared the mound duties: Eugene Bryant, Jim Coen, and Eddie Sundell. Berkeley had one of the best all-round pitching staffs in the league. One of this year's rookies, Roy Biagi, proved to be one of the best hitters on the squad.

All but two members of this semester's varsity graduate, and Mr. Erickson will have to build up a team next year out of unknown material again. We wonder if they will repeat and keep the A. C. A. L. baseball championship at Berkeley High?

BASEBALL INDIVIDUALS

ELDON MURATORE—Team captain this year. Is always fighting for his team. Is a catcher, and knows how to handle his pitchers. He is a senior.

GENE BRYANT—One of the best pitchers in the league. He has been leading Jacket pitcher this year, and is one of the reasons for the success of this year's team. Gene graduates this year.

JIM COEN—Came to Berkeley as a transfer from Michigan. Jim has been doing both pitching and fielding for the team. He is good at both. He also is a senior.

EMIL SIMONCINI—Plays shortstop and second base. Can play any position. "Oakie" is a good team man, and always fights for a victory. He graduates.

ED SUNDELL—Pitcher. Has a fast ball that is hard to hit. Has a good season record. He graduates.

JOHN MAILHO—Center fielder. The leading hitter on the team, batting nearly .500 for the season. John is one of the best outfielders in the A. C. A. L. He is a senior.

FRANK ZULAICA—Second baseman. A hustler and a real team player. Is also a senior.

ROY BIAGI—A tenth grader. One of the best outfielders in the league. A hard, dangerous, long-distance hitter.

FRANK GUTIERREZ—Left field. A sure, dependable fielder and a great hitter in the pinch. He has another year of competition.

JACK COEN—Plays third base and shortstop. A peppy player, playing flashy defensive ball all season. A good hitter, and the leading base runner of the team. He too graduates this year.

Track Season

THE 1939 TRACK SQUAD, by winning out in the big meet at Edwards Field, annexed its third consecutive A. C. A. L. championship title. The Yellowjackets had a much easier time than last year, beating the favored Richmond squad by 11½ points.

The meet climaxed a successful dual meet season in which Berkeley was defeated only twice, once by the Commerce High champions and then by a strong Richmond aggregation.

The Jackets began the season by defeating University High in a practice meet by a score of 61 to 41.

The next meet was with Commerce of San Francisco. The Bulldogs have not lost the San Francisco championship title for eight years, and they did not choose to bow to any team this year. The score of the meet was 69 to 44, but the Berkeleyans showed that they had the makings of a fine team.

In the middle of the season a combined team of Alameda County Athletic League all-stars, sixteen of whom were Berkeley boys, dropped the dual meet to the exceptionally strong California freshman team.

In the next two meets the trackmen lost a close dual meet to Richmond, but came back to win over the Oilers in a triangular meet by the tight score of 56 to 55½, the third competitor being Alameda, whose team picked up 29½ points for a third place.

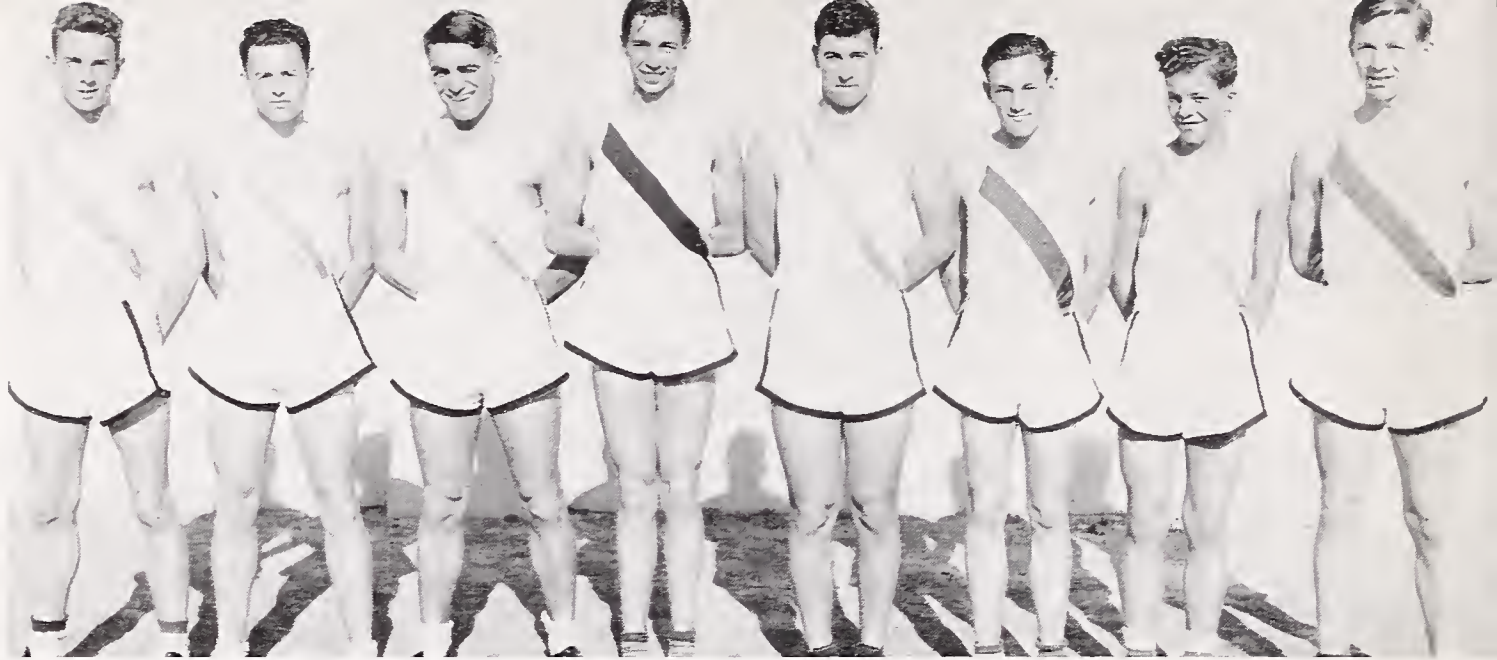

The next time the A. C. A. L. all-stars got together, they routed the Stanford freshmen by a score of 82 to 40, 28 of the points being earned by the Red and Gold forces.

The last dual meets before the A. C. A. L. meet were with Piedmont and Oakland High, Berkeley winning over the Scots, but making only a 52 to 52 tie with the Oakland boys.

Boys who gained points in the league meet and showed ability all through the season were:

Bill Durkee, strong miler, who in his senior year came out for track for the first time, was undefeated up to the A. C. A. L. meet.

Jack Kent, Student Body president, the fastest quarter miler in league competition, and a strong relay man.

Roy Starbird, Honor Society president, also a 440 man who has provided the keenest competition to his team-mate Kent, beating him on occasions. Roy also ran the anchor lap for the relay team.

Bob Dieterich, third man on the relay team. Bob also took second in 100 yard dash in the A. C. A. L.

Charles Kitto took a fourth in the 220 yard dash.

Don Crystal, a tenth grader, won the 220 yard low hurdles with little trouble.

Johnny Gray took third place in the shot put.

John Kenward, second in the pole vault.

Al Williams, who picked up a third in the 880 yard run.

Herb Farrer, a member of the winning Berkeley relay team.

And last but not least the two jumping boys, Bernard Peters and Emerson Chapman, who tied for first in the high jump.

After the A. C. A. L. meet Berkeley was scheduled to participate in the North Coast meet, the state meet, and the Martinez relays, before hanging up the spikes.

Berkeley's class C tracksters tied with 27 points for first with Hayward in the A. C. A. L. finals.

JERRY WOODS

Swimming

HAVING WELL-ROUNDED STRENGTH in every event, the 1939 Yellowjacket swimming team, under Coach Frank Gross, enjoyed a very successful season. Meeting all of the strong teams in the Bay Area, the Red and Gold men almost always came out on top, losing only three meets to high school opponents. The Jackets dropped one of their meets to Alameda High; therefore, as the "Pod" goes to press, they are slight underdogs to the Hornets in the A. C. A. L. finals.

The Yellowjacket class B outfit, however, is probably the strongest B team in the league, and should easily annex the A. C. A. L. title when the finals are run off.

One of the men who stood out on this year's team was Captain Ted McCarthy, three-year veteran in the fifty and hundred yard free style events, both of which he won in A. C. A. L. competition last year. He was Berkeley's mainstay in these events. Other free style men included Ted Blanckenburg, Ed Martin, Bill Vieth, and Bob Ready.

In the 220-yard free style the Red and Gold was represented by Cliff Wright, who, in his only year out for this sport, proved his ability in the distance races, and Ernie Smith, who often gave Cliff some good races.

Berkeley's best breast-stroke swimmer was Charlie Parker, another three-year veteran, who holds the class B A. C. A. L. record. Charlie also won the class A A. C. A. L. race last year, and will be a real threat again this season.

The backstroke races were taken care of by Don Bartlett and Dick Seymour, who usually placed first and second, respectively.

The Jacket divers were veteran Walt White and Ward Vance.

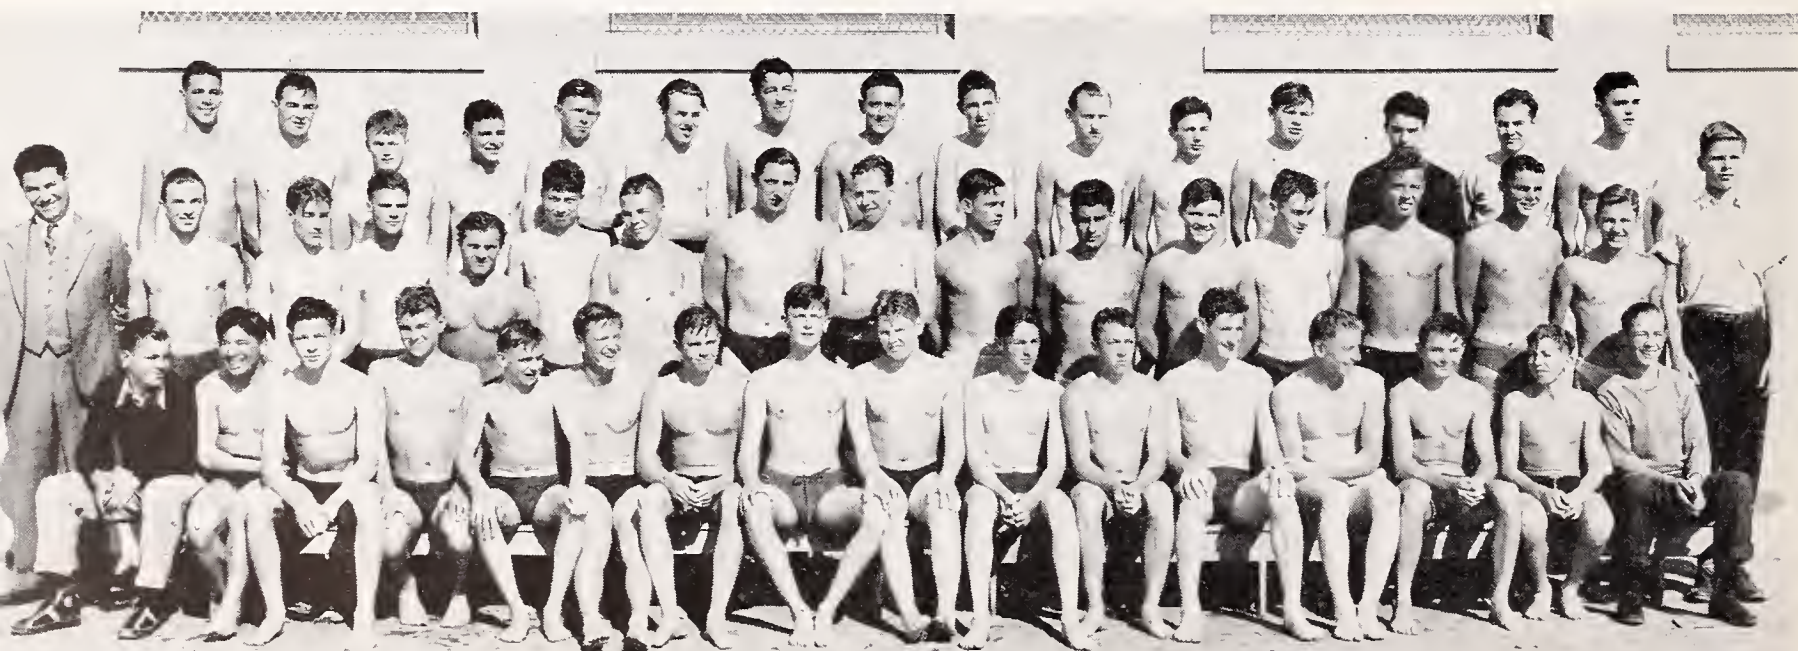

The Berkeley medley relay team, of Bartlett, Parker, and McCarthy, was probably the Yellowjackets' strongest swimming feature, this trio having defeated the California Frosh.

Class B individuals include, in the free style, Allan Lee, Carlos Brown, Bill Wright, and Captain Dick Rothlin. Breaststroke swimmers for the B team were Keith Gordon and Joe Wosser. In the backstroke Bill Wright and Bill Sheeran excelled. Diving was taken care of by Mike Rosenberg and Jack Firchow.

Graduating lettermen include, in class A, McCarthy, Parker, and Dobler, and in class B, Rothlin, Tomita, Green, and Kayser.

Crew

THIS TERM marked the complete organization of the first Berkeley High crew, which was formed last fall by Mr. Harold G. Bellus, faculty sponsor and coach. The crew had comparatively little time in which to train, in either the training scow, made in the school shops, or the racing shell which was given to Berkeley High by the University of California.

The first shell, coached by Mr. Bellus, consisted of Vernon Bruce, coxswain; Francis Van Buren, No. 8; Bob Boyd, No. 7; Charles Apgar, No. 6; George Meyers, No. 5; Max Lambert and Keith Taylor, No. 4; Jim Woodard and Mark Swift, No. 3; Bob Pimentel, No. 2; Bob Scott, No. 1.

Mr. Bellus has been assisted by Mr. Dunkum, Mr. Behrens, and Mr. Reinecke.

The varsity crew rowed three races this season, one practice race with Alameda, and two varsity tilts in which many high schools competed.

The first varsity race was held at crew day in Sacramento. Berkeley High came in a close second to Alameda High in the final race, after winning from the more experienced Sacramento crew in the first heat. Shells from Fremont High, Oakland High, and Oakland Technical High also competed in this race.

The second varsity race was held on the Alameda Estuary, with Berkeley High taking third to Alameda's first and Sacramento's second. The same schools that rowed in the previous meet competed at the Alameda race.

Tennis

THE YELLOWJACKET TENNIS TEAM for 1939 was a well balanced squad with almost uniform strength in every position. The line-up had to be changed many times during the season, as all members were evenly matched and frequent shifts were necessary in order to place the strongest men first.

Just when it seemed as if Berkeley had the league title sewed up, the team ran into some hard luck, losing the services of a man because of illness, and dropped their first match with Piedmont High, which prevented them from winning the title.

This year's team was composed of Jim Moulton, No. 1; Chip Cheney, No. 2; Jack Trunick, No. 3; John Kenward, No. 4; Bill Oliver, No. 5.

The two doubles teams were composed of Ed Winthers and Louie Ramponi, and Claude McEntyre and Ted Collins, with Bob Andrews as an alternate. Much credit is due Coach Al Parker and Manager John Pearson.

Golf

THE GOLF TEAM this spring was one of the finest in the history of the sport at Berkeley High, even though as the "Pod" goes to press they are in last place in the A. C. A. L. race. Nearly the whole squad shoots in the eighties, and instead of having a few stars, the team is well rounded.

Jim Watson and Allan Spindt made up the first flight of the six-man team, and John Sheridan and Ed Lind made up the second flight. The third flight was composed of Jack Larmour and Bill de Jung, with John Moser and Bill Love as substitutes.

In the first round of A. C. A. L. competition Berkeley lost to Richmond, Alameda, and Piedmont by large scores. Starting the second round they showed improvement, but still lost their first two matches. The Berkeley team is good, but the other schools turn in consistently lower scores.

The team, as usual, used the Berkeley Country Club course as their links, and we wish to extend thanks to them for their coöperation.

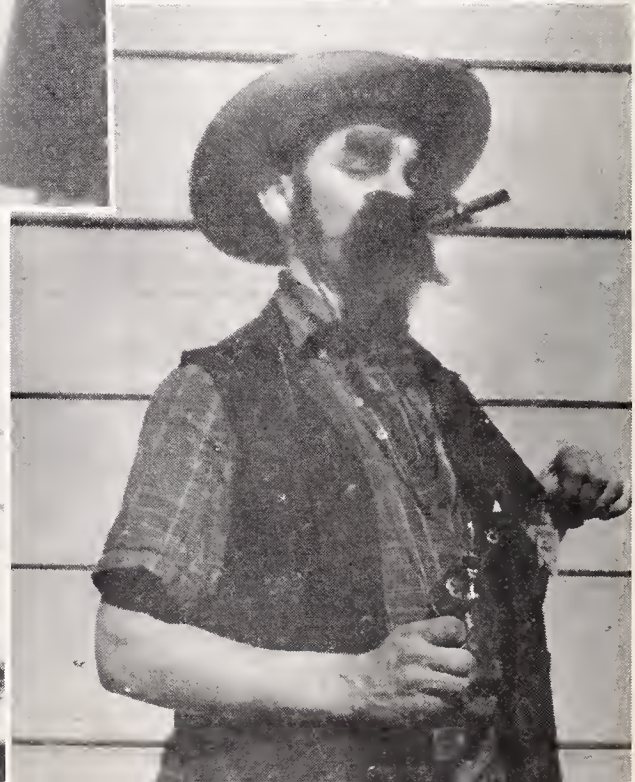

The team was picked from the Golf Club which enlisted more than twenty boys and girls. The club played twice a week and received a lesson on one day a week. With four members of this year's squad returning, next year's team should have a head start on the rest of the league.

Girls' Athletic Association

THE G. A. A. is a club whose purpose is to promote interest and enjoyment in girls' athletics.

This term the G. A. A. has had a full and varied program consisting of the major sports, basketball, softball, swimming, and archery; games with various schools, including the California School for the Deaf; two snow trips, and an overnight hike. The girls also attended play days at Richmond High and Albany High and entertained Albany High at their semi-annual Cabaret, which was a great success because of the untiring efforts of the heads of the committees and their hard-working assistants.

Two other events held this term were the Dance Program, put on by the special dancing club, and the girls' swimming meet. Both of these were activities not undertaken by the G. A. A. during the last few semesters.

The G. A. A. wishes to express its appreciation to the gym teachers for their generous assistance and for the splendid way in which they coöperated with the association in its activities throughout the term.

The Executive Board this term was made up of girls who showed a great deal of interest and spirit. The members of the board were president, Jeanne Arnold; vice-president, Bernice Kelner; corresponding secretary, Maxine Alderette; recording secretary, Clarice Behm; song leader, Elaine Hanks; Weekly News representative, Sally Gilland; head of home-walking, Erna Kremser; head of training, Gloria Gilmer; and sports managers: basketball, Silvia Roletto; softball, Theodora Hall; archery, Margaret McCulloch; swimming, Renee Neill; and hockey, Roberta Armitage.
